LOCAL MATTERS. A Freak of Nature.

Ma. BLANCHARD, who lives a little east of town, had this season, a curios- H. Patterson for $200. ity in the form of fruit. He had two wild grape vine. The vine had grapes for $215. upon it. He has sent his hazelnut-

Very Pleasant.

Quite a keyy of the fair ones of Oregon favored us with a call last Tuesday. These "angelic visits" are very pleasant to us, dwelling, as we do continually in the presence of the "Prince of Evil" We tender many thanks to the ladies. to Sept. 1st, 1865, may be of interest to some of Hope they will call again.

Large Tomato. Mrs. Judge Evans, of this place, sent us, last week, the largest tomato we ever saw. It measured eighteen inches in circumference; and would be sufficient for a meal for a family. In dimensions, if not weight, we are inclined to think it beats the Fulton man's "all hollow."

Want of Lumber.

THE scarcity and high price of lumber is severely felt at this place. We are informed that many persons have been deterred by this, from building houses, who had contemplated doing so. Old houses which should be pulled down, and would be, could lumber be procured at anything like reasonable prices, are being re-roofed and repaired for use, to supply the increasing demand for dwelling houses. Can there be no remedy found for this? We should think profitable here.

Erratum.

An error occurred in the first paragraph of the article on Pear Culture, are so simple as to think such errors a large concourse of people. are made through ignorance. None but those acquainted with the art can have a proper conception of the difficulties to be contended with. In the hurry of getting to press it is the easiest matter imaginable to overlook such errors; and there is nothing which annoys us more than to discover them after the edition has been "worked off." Manuscript articles, if presented to the public in their "original beauty," would often exhibit sad delinquencies in many respects, not the least of which would be in orthography.

The Wilson Tragedy.

MRs. WILSON was again arrested or Friday last, upon the charge of murdering her husband. An examination of his remains, which was had, demonstrating the fact that he came to his death from wounds and bruises received. Instead of his ankle being dislocated, as before reported, it was found that his leg, just below the knee, had been shattered in a terrible manner, and that his body had been otherwise dreadfully | 3d. No imperfect action of the feed at uneven bruised. Mrs. Witson was examined on Saturday last, befere Mayor and exofficio Justice HART, with Judge EVANS as associate, and found guilty of murder in the first degree. She was com-mitted to Jail. Her companion in band. crime and degradation, Miss Cobb, before tried for assault and battery, and acquitted, immediately left for other parts. This sad lesson, it is hoped, will be a warning to others of like character, never to contaminate with their presence this christian community. Oregon, previous to this, and in comparison with many other places, as been proverbially free of such characters; the high state of morality w. an exact, having effectually frowned down and kept them at a distance. We trust the time is far distant when we shall be called upon again to record an occurrence like the one mentioned.
